

SHORT-TERM EXPOSURE TO SECONDHAND SMOKE DECREASES LUNG FUNCTION

Measure of Lung Function: FEV¹

3 Hours after entering a smoky bar, a healthy adult's lung capacity declines significantly

2 Hours after leaving the smoky bar, a healthy adult's lung capacity remains decreased

Eliminating secondhand smoke in all workplaces, including bars and gaming facilities, is crucial for protecting the health of all Louisianians.

HealthierAirForAll.org

#GoSmokeFree